892. SHRIMATI BIJOYA CHAKRAVARTY: Will the Minister of HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) what are the criteria adopted for the selection of Indian Table Tennis Players, both men and women, for the forthcoming Seoul Olympics;

(b) whether it is a fact that a separate criterion was adoption for the selection of female table tennis players for Seoul Olympics; and

(c) if not, how was Miss Monalist Baruah, who was India's No. 1 in 1986, and No. 2 in 1987 was denied a chance to qualify herself in the selection matches for the Seoul Olympics?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE DEPARTMENTS OF YOUTH AFFAIRS AND SPORTS AND WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT IN THE MINISTRY OF HUMAN RESOURCE DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a) to (c) As per information supplied by the Table Tennis Federation of India, the Federation has adotped the criteria laid down by the International Table Tennis Federation for the Olympic Qualifyng Tournament for the Asian Zone. According to this criteria, every Association is allowed to enter upto a maximum of 3 men and 2 women players for the Qualifying Tournament. However, only 2 men and one women players can be selected from each Association.

No separate criteria has been prescribed for women players.

Miss Monalisa Barua was India's No. 5 in 1986 and No. 2 in 1987. The Selection Committee of the Table Tennis Federation of India claim that they took into consideration not only the rankings but also the potentialities of the players for the future. The Selection Committee, therefore, selected the following two players:—

1. Miss. Niyati Roy, National Champion in 1987 and India No. 1 in 1986 and 1987.

2. Miss Varsha Chulani, National Champion in 1986 and India No. 2 in 1986.

Miss Niyati Roy defeated Miss. Varsha Chulani in the Qualifying Round and thus qualified to participate in the Olympics.
